President Margaret started the meeting by asking for a pledge volunteer and, the whole club started at once. No rookies here! Jeremiah volunteered the song and the prayer. Good man here. Ramsin Gangi volunteered the fine pot duty. Good man here. Greeters were no shows so Jim M volunteered. Good man here.

Announcements.

Joyce A. Don't forget Picnic in the Park Margaret T. We just purchased a mic from Kyle B. for 250.00. Jan J. we need new board member to replace Jim M. Terry McGrath volunteered. Good man here. Joyce A. Don't forget Social committee meeting at her place 6pm Monday.9-12-11. Russ H. We need three more wineries?!? Russ H. More tickets need to be sold.!!! Please everybody pitch in here. Thank You.

Birthdays. Hugh B. Another "run-of-the-mill" 39 yr old, pitched in a twenty. Good man here.

Auction items. Margaret T and Karen P brought back a T-shirt from fabulous Groveland. The bidder paid five dollars and was soon forgotten.

Cold Case Files. 1. Where is little Marble Blue? And 2.Whose got The Fine Free Neckless?

Guest Speaker. Our speaker was Jill Erikson on the topic seniors and caregiver info. Jill is the manager of the Dept of Aging and Veteran Services. If you are a senior or involved with senior relations at this time, this mega amount of information provided here, can be and is invaluable. The Dept is located here in Modesto at 121 Downey Ave #102.

Mr. Al Kaufman.

Recently one of our long time members passed away. During his membership, was responsible for having recruited several other members. Two of those members where at this luncheon. Both men, AL Menshew and Russ Harrison gave a warm and personal accounts of their fellow Kiwanian. Good men here. For me, I never got the chance to know this fellow Kiwanian. I did read his obit, in fact I read it twice. I know Mr. AL KAUFMAN now. I also know now, the Modesto Kiwanis were very fortunate to have had this GREAT man here.
